At eleven o'clock yesterday morning the County Democratic and Conservative convention convened at the Exposition ouilding, for the purpose of nominating candidates for the following offices: Sheriff, county-trustee, judge of the side the space railed off for delegates in front of the stand. Judge Irving Hal-sey, chairman of the executive board. appeared to preside over the organizaion of the convention, and was assisted by Secretary Karr, of thesame executive Chairman Halsey called the convenfon to order, and stated that the convention was called for the purpose of selecting candidates to be elected to county offices in August next. Chairman Halsey, on behalf of the executive board, stated the following order of

2. Election of temperary officers. 3. Election or appointment of committee on credentials. 4. Election or appointment of comnittee on permanent organization. 5. Election of permanent organization.

1. Calling convention to order,

6. Nomination of candidates for couny officers in such order as the convention may decide upon. Colonel John Donovan was nominated s temporary chairman of the convention. The nomination was carried unanimously. Colonel Donovan appeared on the stand and thanked the delegates for the onor conferred upon him. He recomnended harmony and good feeling in the nominations, with a view to the success of the Democratic and Conserva tive party in August next. The welfare f the party should be the governing idea and not the success of any particular caudidate. Mr. A. W. Newsom was nominated and elected temporary secretary.

Colonel M. D. L. Stewart moved that a committee on credentials of five from the city and three from the country be appointed by the chair. The com-mittee appointed was as follows: Messis. Ed Worsham, P. Kearns, Joe Flynn, George L. Williams, Butler P. Auderson, from the city, and Messrs. W. H. Walker, Dr. Thomas H. Williamson, W. D. Carrent George L. Williamson, and pledged himself to abide by the action of the convention. He said he had held offices of high public trust Flynn, George L. Williams, Butler P. W. D. Cannon from the country.
